

Hellenic Network for CSR launches Greek version of Responsible Supply Chain Management portal

The Hellenic Network for CSR prepared a Greek version of the Responsible Supply Chain Management portal in order to promote CSR among Greek SMEs. Upcoming co operations and communication activities will aim at raising the public awareness about the site.

The platform on which the Greek translation is based can additionally host other languages at a low cost. Moreover, it can easily be enriched with further information and additional tools.

The site can be found at www.csr-supplychain.gr.
