

European Parliament publishes report on CSR

The European Parliament has recently published a report on CSR and its impact on accountable, transparent and responsible business behaviour and sustainable growth. The report analyses the European Commission's definition of CSR as 'the responsibility of enterprises for their impacts on society' and disseminates the opinions of various Committees in regards to CSR. The report also mentioned the "importance and the potential of CSR Europe's Enterprise 2020 initiative".

Topics covered by the report include:

Preliminary remarks on the new definition and the specificities of CSR

Strengthening the links between CSR, competitiveness and the general public

Making CSR policies more transparent and more effective

Recognising and promoting SME involvement in CSR

(Source: European Parliament)

30/01/2013