

MGM Resorts International Ranks in Top 100 for MBA Students

LAS VEGAS, Jun. 19 /CSRwire/ - MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) has been cited as one of the top 100 companies for Masters of Business Administration students by Universum Global, the Employer Brand Research Firm. MGM Resorts ranked 86th, the only integrated casino resort company to rank, in its first appearance on the list that was announced on June 6th via CNN Money.

"We're pleased that our focus on being an employer of choice as a leading entertainment and hospitality company that provides a spectrum of dynamic career paths, is recognized by the next generation of employee and business leaders," said Jim Murren, Chairman & CEO of MGM Resorts International.

"The top attributes attracting MBA students to MGM Resorts are its market success, opportunities for international travel/relocation, and leadership opportunities," said Kortney Kutsop, Senior Account Director at Universum. "With leadership as one of the key MBA preferences overall, MGM's perceived employer value proposition is well aligned with what MBA students are looking for in an employer."

The 2013 rankings of the IDEAL™ MBA Employers are based on a survey of nearly 4,000 MBA students, and reveal which employers have the most effective employer brand.

"We're focused on a guest-centric service environment that offers an astonishing array of experiences and memories for our guests and customers," said Corey Sanders, Chief Operating Officer of MGM Resorts. "Creating an environment in which employees are engaged, entertained and inspired to see, meet and exceed the needs of our guests and teammates, is job number one. We're pleased that this focus is being seen and recognized," Sanders continued.

Business college undergraduate students also rank MGM Resorts among their most admired employers, according to Universum's survey of nearly 66,000 students. In its debut on the list, MGM Resorts was No. 40, making it the only integrated resort and only Nevada-based company to rank in the top 100.
