

U.S. EMBASSY ATHENS

Embassy Officers John Thompson and Robert Bond briefed 700 undergraduates, faculty and family participating in a “Semester at Sea” upon their arrival to Piraeus Port yesterday morning. The students represent 246 American colleges and universities and are passing through Greece as part of this study abroad program which combines cultural immersion with academic coursework.

<http://www.semesteratsea.org/destinations/>

15/07/2013