

Sanofi (EPA:SAN) publishes 2012 Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Report

As a leading healthcare company, Sanofi's mission is to protect the health, improve the quality of life and meet the hopes and potential needs of 7 billion people in the world.

Sanofi 2012 CSR report offers a close look at Sanofi's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) priorities and practices. You can read the report here.

As a key component in Sanofi CSR communications suite, the report describes the challenges this company faces, the strategic approaches Sanofi uses to address them, and their progress toward meeting their goals. For each challenge, Sanofi also highlights initiatives that illustrate CSR in action in day-to-day work. The sections of this report reflect Sanofi pillars of Patient, Ethics, People, and Planet. Within each of these key areas, Sanofi present three emblematic CSR issues as a means to focus on the most critical CSR challenges today, for it as a global healthcare company and for its stakeholders:

Patient

- Access to healthcare
- Innovation
- Patient safety

Ethics

- Ethics in R&D
- Business ethics
- Human rights

People

- Health and safety in the workplace
- Diversity
- Workforce development

Planet

- Energy and carbon footprint
- Water management
- Pharmaceuticals in the environment

You can find more information about Sanofi CSR initiatives and positions at <http://csr.sanofi.com> or in the Download Center http://en.sanofi.com/csr/download\_center

About Sanofi

Sanofi, an integrated global healthcare leader, discovers, develops and distributes therapeutic solutions focused on patients' needs. Sanofi has core strengths in the field of healthcare with seven growth platforms: diabetes solutions, human vaccines, innovative drugs, consumer healthcare, emerging markets, animal health and the new Genzyme. Sanofi is listed in Paris (EURONEXT: SAN) and in New York (NYSE: SNY).

“Each day across the globe, Sanofi’s 110,000 employees are working to protect your health and improve access to healthcare for as many patients as possible. As a healthcare company, Sanofi places quality, safety, ethics and respect for the planet at the heart of our business.”

source: ReportAlert

16/07/2013