SanDisk bags golden Peacock Global Award 2013 for corporate social responsibility

SanDisk was recognized for its humanitarian support of its signature partners

BANGALURU, INDIA: SanDisk Corp., a global leader in flash storage solutions, has won the prestigious Golden Peacock Global Award for second consecutive year for SanDisk's ongoing corporate social responsibility initiatives both globally and regionally.

In India, SanDisk was recognized for its humanitarian support of its signature partners: SOS-Children's Villages, Nanhi Kali, Sankara Eye Foundation, Samarthanan Trust for the Blind and One School at a Time (OSAT).

Accepting the honour at an event in Bengaluru, Ganesh Guruswamy, VP and head of Design Operations, India Design Center, SanDisk, said: "It is a proud moment for SanDisk to again win the Golden Peacock Global Award, which is recognition of the ongoing commitment to charitable causes by SanDisk's employees worldwide. We look forward to extending our CSR efforts in years to come."

10/02/2014