

AARP 2014 Best Employers International Award: invitation to companies to apply

AARP (formerly the American Association of Retired Persons)- the largest 50+ nonprofit organisation, with over 37 million members, invites European companies to participate in its 2014 Best Employers International (BEI) Award programme. Working in partnership with European organisations to promote the award and the winners - the Age and Employment Network (UK), BAGSO (Germany), and PGM (The Netherlands) - the programme honours non-US-based organisations by spotlighting innovative workplace policies and practices that support workers of all ages.
