

Alliance Data 2014 Corporate Responsibility Report Highlights Progress in Key Performance Areas, Establishes Multi-Year Goals

DALLAS, Sep. 03 /CSRwire/ - Alliance Data Systems Corporation (NYSE: ADS), a leading global provider of data-driven marketing and loyalty solutions, issued its annual Corporate Responsibility report, which encompasses activities across the corporation, including its headquarters and three lines of business – Alliance Data’s card services business, Epsilon and LoyaltyOne. View the full report.

“At Alliance Data, corporate responsibility is engrained in our culture and a point of pride for our associates. We have the opportunity and a responsibility to protect consumer privacy and data, invest in our associates and the communities where we operate, and lessen our impact on the planet,” said Ed Heffernan, president and chief executive officer of Alliance Data. “While this report captures some of the phenomenal things our company is doing, the goal was not to paint a pretty picture of our initiatives, but rather, to be transparent about our strengths and opportunities. We know being a good corporate citizen is a never-ending commitment, and the pride we have in our successes fuels our drive to be better and do greater things.”

Knowing there is always work to do and a new goal to strive toward, the 2014 report also highlights Alliance Data’s new multi-year goals focused on increasing our responsible corporate citizen position.

Some highlights and goals from the report:

Data:

- Acted as an active leader and advocate on Capitol Hill for data privacy and security

- Formalized internal enterprise-wide threat intelligence sharing team

- Strengthened and established partnerships with other industry-leading threat intelligence sharing groups

Goal: The company will remain committed to proactively protect and educate its clients and consumers as they will always require an ongoing, dedicated effort as the company continually monitors and evaluates threats, strengthens its processes, protocols, and collaboration with industry peers and regulators.

People:

- Invested more than $5 million in associate training and development

- Logged nearly 350,000 hours of training by associates

- Launched new recognition tool where more than 90 percent of associates logged on and generated more than 200,000 recognitions.

Goal: Reduce voluntary associate turnover by 1 percent annually and continue to increase associate engagement and enablement scores.

Community:

- Invested more than $5.1 million in the community, an increase of 13 percent from the previous year.

Volunteered more than 18,000 hours, an increase of 20 percent.

Collected more than 400,000 pounds of food for those in need.

Goal: A 2020 goal has been set to invest $50 million in the community over the next five years, continuing to work toward the company's goal of reaching a best-in-class benchmark, or giving 1 percent of EBITDA.

Environment:

While scope 1 and 2 emissions were up by 10 percent compared to 2012 baseline, the company has increased revenue by more than 45 percent during the same timeframe, and will continue to find ways to do more with less.

Planted 30,000 trees through American Forests

Attained LEED® EB:O&M Gold certification at Toronto-based LoyaltyOne

Goal: Reduce combined scope 1 and 2 emissions by 5 percent over the next three years.

Trust, integrity, and transparency have been part of the foundation of Alliance Data's success and have allowed the company to maintain record performance and growth since its inception. The company will continue to annually report on its performance and set goals for future progress.
