

Eirini Botonaki
Loan Officer – Global Relationship Manager, Banking
Sector Greece
European Investment Bank

Eirini Botonaki joined the Lending Operations division of the European Investment Bank (EIB) in October 2016 as Loan Officer - Global Relationship Manager for Greek banks. Before joining EIB, she worked for almost 3.5 years at the European Investment Fund (EIF) as Mandate Manager, covering Greece and Cyprus. Between September 2003 – May 2013 she worked for the Global Markets division of BNP Paribas in London as Head of Fixed Income Institutional Sales for Greece & Cyprus, while her career started in 2002 at JP Morgan in London as Investment Banking Analyst in Telecoms, Media & Technology. Eirini holds a BSc in Business Administration from the Athens University of Economics & Business (ASOEE) and an MSc in Accounting and Finance from the London School of Economics (LSE).