

Nancy Papaioannou
President
Atlantic Bank of New York

Nancy was elected the President of Atlantic Bank of New York in July of 2013, where she drove the Bank to become the biggest Greek American Banking institution in US serving the Greek/Cypriot American Community. She leads the firm's business addressed to both domestic and international levels and her main focus remains to serve the Community, support Greek-Cypriot businesses and promote her Greek heritage.

As a community leader, Nancy is passionate to help others and support many philanthropic and social endeavors. In addition due to her positive exposure to the community she was elected from 2014 to 2016 as the President of the Hellenic American Chamber of Commerce, one of the most historical and prestigious organization in US, and at present she is it's chairman of the Board. She also serves as a member of the Advisory Board of the Mount Sinai Hospital in Astoria-Queens. Nancy is an active member of the Archdiocesan Cathedral Philoptochos Society and involved with many other philanthropic organizations that make a difference in the world.

Nancy received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting and Business Management from Marymount Manhattan College and has taken several courses for her MBA at Saint John's University and credit certification by NYU. She is fluent in Greek, English and French.
